

MSSNY SPONSORS CME WEBINARS ON H1N1 and HIV

The Medical Society of the State of New York is holding webinars H1N1 and HIV throughout the spring. Members from the MSSNY's Committee on Emergency Preparedness and Bioterrorism Response, will serve as faculty "H1N1 Prevention and Control" and two hours of Continuing Medical Education (CME) credits will be awarded to physicians. The webinars will be held on the following dates:

Thursday, March 18, 2010 Time: 6:00-8:00 PM
Wednesday, April 14, 2010 Time: 5:30-7:30 PM
Friday, April 30, 2010 Time: 1:00-3:00 PM

The HIV program, entitled "HIV In the Marginalized and Underserved Population" will begin on March 26, 2010 and will be presented by William Valenti, MD, chair of MSSNY's Infectious Diseases Committee. One hour of Continuing Medical Education (CME) credits will be awarded to physicians. The webinars will be held on the following dates:

Friday, March 26, 2010 Time 12-1 p.m.
Thursday, April 22, 2010 Time 5:30-6:30 p.m.
Thursday, April 29, 2010 Time 1-2 p.m.
Wednesday, May 5, 2010 Time 8-9 a.m.
Thursday, May 13, 2010 Time 8-9 a.m.
Wednesday, May 19, 2010 Time 5:30-6:30 p.m.
Friday, May 21, 2010 Time 12-1 p.m.

Pre-registration for the H1N1 program is required by contacting Peter Maggiore at pmaggiore@mssny.com or by going to <https://mssny.webex.com>. Once on the website, click the "Upcoming" tab and then select the webinar that you would like to attend. For HIV pre-registration for the program is required by contacting Sharon Damiano at sdamiano@mssny.com or by going to <https://mssny.webex.com>. Once on the website, click the "Upcoming" tab and then select the webinar that you would like to attend. Or you can call MSSNY's Albany office at 518-465-8095 to speak with Peter or Sharon.