Physician Wellness: Moving from Resilience to System Culture Change

Live Seminar & Panel Discussion

Educational Objectives

- Understand the impact of organizational attempts to address physician stress
- Envision large-scale changes in our health care system that can protect against physician burnout
- Participate in needs assessment for institutional intervention strategies
- Review survey tools to help measure the health of medical staffs
- Identify and prioritize actionable strategies for institutional wellness

April 12, 2019
4 PM—6 PM
Westchester Marriott
Tarrytown, NY
Ballroom D&E

Moderators: Maria Basile, MD, Colon and Rectal Surgery, Vice Chair of MSSNY Committee on Physician Wellness and Resilience
Brian White, MD, Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, Member of Committee on Physician Wellness and Resilience

Presenter: Arthur Hengerer, MD, Professor of Otolaryngology, University of Rochester, Member, National Academy of Medicine Action Collaborative on Physician Burnout, Past Chair, Federation of State Medical Boards, Member, MSSNY Committee of Physician Wellness

To pre-register, please click here.

The Medical Society of the State of New York is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Medical Society of the State of New York designates this live activity for a maximum of 2.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.